

Michael Cromwell
Business Litigation Associate
Womble Carlyle Sandridge & Rice, LLP

Manufacturing executives rely on Michael's experience to handle scientific and medical issues in both commercial and mass tort litigation.

Clients throughout the Southeast and Mid-Atlantic regions turn to Michael for representation in federal and state courts and Michael has developed a niche understanding and appreciation for issues that arise in the manufacture, distribution and sale of agricultural as well as food and beverage products.

Outside of his client work, Michael stays active in the ABA's Subcommittee on Food, Cosmetics, and Nutraceuticals, publishing on various food-related topics. The Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina is one of Michael's charitable passions.
